A5) Mirabai believed in Lord Krishna. She had devoted her life to the Lord. She never thought of marriage and family life. She wanted to spend her life in the service of God. However, she could not lead the life according to her choice. At a young age, she was married to Prince Bhoj and she was expected to carry out domestic duties. Mirabai had to struggle in life. She was offered riches and threatened to be killed. Finally, she had to leave her home.

Modern women also have to struggle and fight against opposition if they wish to do something different. They are forced to lead traditional life and follow old customs. They have to carry out domestic duties. Hence, there are similarities between the life of Mirabai and modern women.

Q.4 B) Write a summary of the above passage and suggest a suitable title for it.

Mirabai – A great Bhakti Saint

Mirabai was a great Bhakti saint, Hindu mystic poet and a devotee of the Lord Krishna. She wrote many bhajans in praise of Lord Krishna which are still sung by Krishna devotees all over the world. Her life is equally important from another point of view. Her parents from a royal family of Rajasthan died when she was very young. Raised by her grandfather Rao Dudaji, she also received lessons in religion, politics & government. She was married off to Prince Bhoj Raj of Chittor but he also died in 1521. She lost a friend, mentor and protector. She left the royal household & went to Vrindavan & devoted her life in the service of Lord Krishna.

Ratnagiri – 415612
20th January 2019
Dear Daddy,

Some friends from my class have decided to go for a three-day trip to the Andaman and Nicobar Islands. The trip has been planned; only the booking of flights has to be made. Will you please allow me to join the trip? On Thursday morning we shall be leaving by train for Mumbai. We will leave from Mumbai on Friday. The same evening we shall arrive at Port Blair by flight.

We shall be lodging at the ‘Golden Resort’ in Baratang. The next three days we plan to visit various places of interest such as the Nilambur Jetty, the Mangroves Canopy Walk, the Limestone Caves nearby and other places of interest. One entire day will be spent on Parrot Island. On Saturday we shall visit Nicobar. Here we shall go snorkeling. Also we will be visiting various islands such as Kondul, Teresa and Trinket. Saturday night is our flight back to Mumbai from where we shall take a bus (which has already been booked) back to Ratnagiri.

About 25 students have already agreed to go on the trip. The entire cost will be Rs 5000/- per student. This is after a considerable discount of 53%. Could you tell mummy or mamaji to give me the money? I do so much want to go. My studies are going along well. You don’t have to worry about them at all.

Mummy and little Micky send their love. We hope you take care of yourself, and come back soon.

Your loving son,
XYZ

Q.5 B) Speech writing.

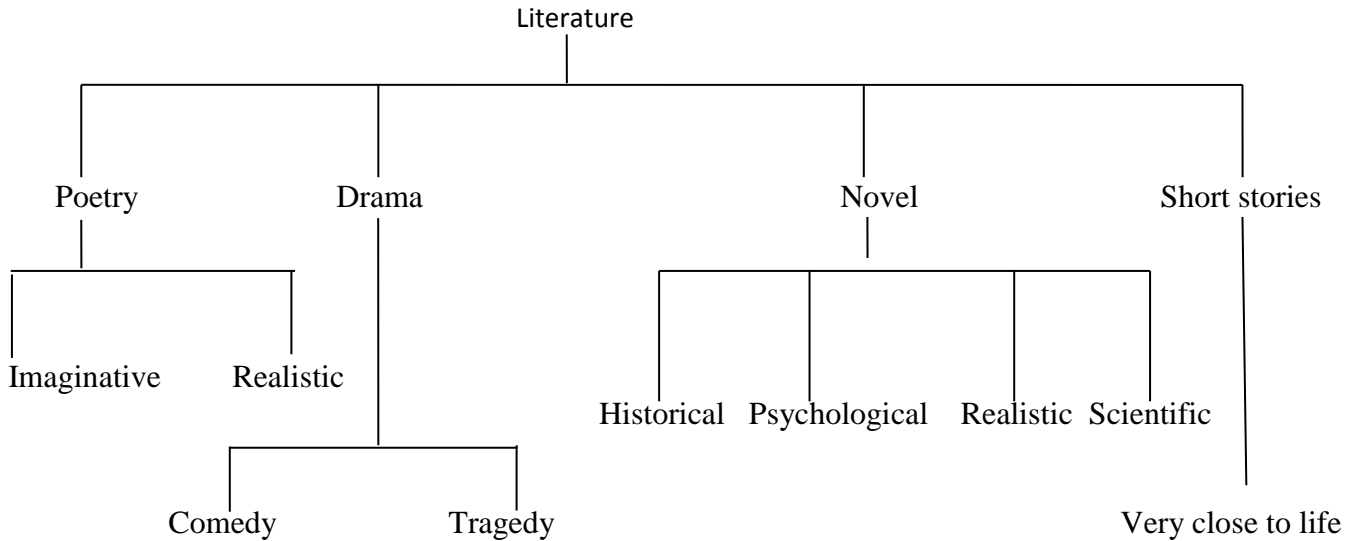

Respected Headmaster, Beloved Teachers and My Dear Friends, Today, the 7th of April is World Health Day. I am proud to say that I am a complete vegetarian because I believe that vegetables are the complete food. They contain vitamins, minerals and water. Many vegetables also contain proteins, carbohydrates and iron. Vegetables have high nutritive value. Besides they are very much affordable and easily available. Some vegetables even have healing and medicinal properties. All the elements present in vegetables, including vitamins and minerals are Life-supporting. They are easy to digest. Various kinds of vegetables are available in the market and trying each one of them gives variety to our food. Hence, it is my conclusion that vegetables contribute to a healthier, longer life. As long as we eat vegetables, we shall live longer. Long live vegetables!

Thank You!

B2) Given below is a travel leaflet. Now do any one of the following activities.

The Ajanta Caves

The Ajanta Caves in Aurangabad are a major tourist attraction. They are part of the proud cultural heritage of India. It took almost one thousand years for the caves to be carved – from 200 B.C. to 800 A.D. Hidden in the undergrowth for centuries, they were finally discovered in 1819 A.D. Here at Ajanta you will see 29 caves in good condition. There are immerse and beautiful wall paintings (frescoes) everywhere. These caves are an example of the breathtaking achievement of man. The average tourist will find it hard to believe that the caves were all carved out by hand. In the inner temple you will see a huge stone sculpture of Lord Buddha.
